

The Joseph & Wolf Lebovic Chair of Jewish Studies at the University of Waterloo in Conjunction with the Faculty of Arts Lecture Series "Controversies" Present:

"MUST A JEW BE A ZIONIST TO BE A GOOD JEW?"

A PHILOSOPHER AND A BIBLICAL SCHOLAR IN CONVERSATION

The establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 was the culmination of three millennia of Jewish history stretching back to ancient biblical times. Can a Jew who rejects Zionism's commitment to a Jewish national homeland remain an authentic Jew? Does the denial of this commitment by the non-Jew amount to anti-semitism? Two renowned scholars discuss whether Judaism without Zionism is a contradiction in terms.
